

d) Further observations

1/ What are the Acc. sing. for turris and Tiberis?

turris ⇨ ..... Tiberis ⇨ .....

2/ The declined forms of the two nouns vir (2nd decl.) and vis (3rd decl.) are easily confused; can you tell which noun belongs to each of these forms?

vires .....	viribus .....	virium .....
viri .....	virum .....	vim .....
virorum .....	viris .....	viro .....

3/ Identify the use of either vir or vis in this sentence:

• Atheniensium classis trecentis navibus vi ac multitudine invasit (Cicero, In Verrem). .....

4/ Write the different meanings of these words in singular and plural:

▷ aedis, -is	▷ finis, -is	▷ ops, opis	▷ sors, sortis
Singular: .....	Singular: .....	Singular: .....	Singular: .....
Plural: .....	Plural: .....	Plural: .....	Plural: .....

General exercises for the 3rd declension

[12]

1/ For each word, write the dictionary-entry form (Nom./Gen. singular) and identify the case and number in which the word is:

itineris .....	vim .....
pectora .....	aedes .....
homini .....	matri .....
dignitas .....	nocte .....
navium .....	animalia .....
flumina .....	caedem .....
urbium .....	dolori .....
mentes .....	aestate .....